

ANGELA MONDOU

What do you get when you combine war-zones, humanitarian projects, fighter aircraft missions, The Oprah Winfrey show or the NFL? An entirely new and unique view on Leadership – one that goes way beyond the boardroom! The unique design and content of this book strikes new ground in leadership development and provides leaders and entrepreneurs with tools, tips and action plans to seize their leadership potential. The reader is taken around the world in a variety of mission critical environments and shown how to apply unique leadership insight to their own fast-paced projects in work or in their personal lives. Corporate CEO's, military leaders, sports leaders and some of the top entrepreneurial learning centers in Canada have endorsed this highly 'innovative' book.

KEYNOTE SPEAKING

Smart, confident and energizing with a portfolio of experience that can be considered extraordinary and uncommon. Angela's keynotes provide a unique, edgy and provocative view on leadership and personal growth. Angela's energized program has been created to provide a powerful punch and target four exciting areas:

- Mission-critical leadership – get the mindset
- Experience the paradigm shift!
- Seize the Decade
- You are the CEO

Six exciting anecdotes with intriguing 'out of the corporate box' insight (think fighter missions, The Oprah Winfrey Show, the NFL super bowl or global humanitarian projects) are now available to provide the customized experience your team needs.

- Quick, Dirty and sometimes flawed! (execution) – Using one of the fastest-paced teams in the world, Angela describes some of the tools and tactics it takes to thrive when you're pulling a team together at warp speed.
- Connect the Front Lines and the Big Picture (communication) – Have you ever heard of '2 Up 1 Down'? This is a simple communication strategy you won't forget and can apply today with your team or company.
- Get Comfortable with being Uncomfortable (change) – We are all facing global change on a daily basis. 'Don't be the victim' and 'Readiness' are two mindsets to help you lead through this inevitable leadership reality and Angela will share some inspiring insight to help you face change.
- Spark Creativity (innovation) - Leadership insight on how to release your teams' passion for creativity and innovation. And hey, if you can combine the Oprah Winfrey Show, NFL Football and the high-tech industry to deliver a super-successful marketing program its win-win!
- Push Your Envelope (re-invention) – How can you experience that personal paradigm shift to get yourself to an entirely new level? Angela describes one of her most challenging leadership experiences as a UN peacekeeper to demonstrate that fast-track to personal growth.
- Create Exponential Potential (the force) – 'Belief' combined with genuine connection and 'chance' can deliver the most incredible opportunity. How can you increase your opportunities to access that exponential potential? It's right there waiting for you.

NEW! INTERACTIVE 'FIRE-SIDE' CHATS

If you are looking for more of an interactive and highly tuned-in session for your team, a 'fireside chat' might be a great solution. This 'sit-down' session provides your team with an opportunity to create a completely customized experience – you select from a multitude of current and powerful leadership and personal growth topics for an 'open-ended' discussion with Angela. The result – a dynamic, energizing and highly interactive session with a direct connection for your team.
