Interactive Musical-Comedy Stage Shows for Family Events

<https://www.kmprod.com/the-stylamanders>

Show Description

The Stylamanders (based in Toronto) are an extremely popular and well-established high energy musical comedy duo who specialize in interactive family shows, and are very well-suited for corporate family-oriented events all year round.

They have recorded several best selling children's albums, write their own songs, include lots of audience participation, championship yo-yo tricks, crazy choreography, and some very silly improv to delight the whole family!

Mark Kersey is the keyboard player/yo-yo champ. Many remember him as "Mark The Repairman" from the original Mr. Dressup series seen on CBC. Mark is an accomplished musician, and was the 1984 Canadian yo-yo champion. He was also 1/2 of The Original Canadian Dueling Pianos Show and is also a very accomplished keyboard player as well as accordionist.

Paul Gibson plays guitar and writes many of the songs The Stylamanders perform. He is a trained actor (having performed everything from Shakespeare to Dudley The Dragon) and is a wonderful singer too!

For holiday seasonal events, The Stylamanders have written a fast paced family-oriented show that balances their own original Christmas songs with traditional favourites. They have a surprise gift for Mark to open, cool yo-yo tricks, a tree they decorate with bubbles, and even have the kids join their secret club, the "Santa's Little Helpers."
