Bio

Leadership requirements on the front lines of business are not so different than those on the front lines of combat, says speaker General (Retired) Rick Hillier. Each position requires a strong and sound vision to lead a united and skilled team. Drawing from more than 30 years of experience with the Canadian Forces, including the three he served as Canada's Chief of the Defence Staff, General Hillier takes audiences through the principles of leadership that he learned on the battlefield, and how they can be applied to civilian life. ### Leadership in Tough Times

Through the stories of the men and women who represent our country around the world, supported by their families, and doing the toughest jobs imaginable, Hillier illustrates how at its core, leadership is about people. This presentation is both funny and moving. Hillier uses stunning and poignant visuals of our troops "in action" to demonstrate how leaders are made, not born, and this presentation is certain to resonate with a wide spectrum of audiences.
