Topics

No Mountain too High: Challenging Change with the Adventure Attitude

An educator by training, John uses the lessons learned from his own life and death adventures in the world's most remote places to articulate down-to-earth strategies for meeting the challenges of challenging times. He uses his amazing storytelling ability and the power of metaphor to address the themes of goals and expectations, risk and adventure, embracing fear and anxiety, the value of commitment, and many more.

Straight to the Top and Beyond: Nine Keys for Meeting the Challenge of Changing Times

By definition, adventure involves dealing with the uncertain, the unpredictable and the unknown, just as change involves moving towards a future in which there are no guarantees. To succeed in the uncertain world, we must learn to embrace change, and to become visionary and adventurous in dealing with the economic, social, and political environments in which we must all operate.

Climbing Your Own Everest

John Amatt's most popular presentation explores the metaphor of striving to reach the top of the world. Illustrated by magnificent color photography from his successful expedition which climbed Everest, this presentation investigates the qualities we must all bring to bear in climbing to the top in the difficult and unpredictable economic environments.

Meeting the Challenge of Change

Designed as an in-house program, this thought provoking seminar has also been effectively integrated into annual meetings or conventions. Meeting the Challenge of Change will motivate your staff to embrace new opportunities in a changing world, to open up their minds to new realities, and to develop the "Adventure Attitude" strategies that will be the key to success in the future.
