Bio

Speaker Mike Lipkin brings out the best in leaders and employees around the world. The founder and president of Environics/Lipkin, a global research and motivation company, and the author of numerous bestselling books, he combines Environics' trademark "social values research" with his personal expertise to provide organizations such as Deloitte, P&G, Pfizer, Wells Fargo, and GE with the tools to take powerful action and achieve pre-eminence in their workplaces. Mike's latest book "The Potentiator - How To Create Breakthroughs With Others In a Post Pandemic World" was published in November 2021.

Mike Lipkin combines his learning from talking to a million people in forty-three countries with the insights from the Environics Social Values research to offer clients the best of all worlds: a powerful blend of ideas and principles that help them achieve remarkable results. He began his career with Colgate Palmolive as a brand manager, and then migrated to the advertising industry where he held senior account management positions at both Grey Advertising and Ogilvy & Mather.

In 2001, Lipkin founded Environics/Lipkin, and has since written several bestselling books on personal leadership and effectiveness, including Your Personal Best: The 12 Personal Best Practices to Help You Live at Your Highest Level; Luck Favours the Brave: How the Five Social Super Trends Can Make You Very, Very Successful; On Fire: The Art of Personal Consistency;

Keeper of The Flame: How to Inspire Others on the Cusp of Change; and his most recent, You Belong Here: How to Make People Feel Safe to Be Their Best, Take Bold Risks, and Win.
