Bio

Paul Pacific has been performing his unique brand of mind reading, ESP and mentalism for more than a decade and has entertained audiences in more than five countries. To list just two of his accomplishments, he was once asked to find the general manager of Paramount Canada's Wonderland who was hiding somewhere in the park. He did manage to find her in less than 2 hours and 45 minutes - even though she was wearing a DISGUISE!! On another occasion, he drove a car while blindfolded through the streets of Niagara Falls, using only the guidance of the thoughts of the brave committee in the car with him.

Paul is an extremely popular entertainer, frequently engaged for corporate events, conferences, as well as college and university shows. He offers his unique talents in the forms of strolling mentalism for receptions, trade shows and hospitality suites as well as interactive stage shows.

Show Description

Strolling Mind Reading & Telepathy

Demonstrating the linking of 3 borrowed rings

This type of show is ideal for events such as: cocktail parties, hospitality suites, or dinners where there is no central stage. Paul will astonish your group with the same intensity as the stage show, only in a more intimate and personal manner, such as from table to table, or from small group to group. Imagine each one of your guests expressing their enjoyment at experiencing telepathy first hand, up close and personal.

Stage Shows

Finding the word chosen by the audience

This is Paul at his best! Whether or not he is working on a small riser or a ballroom floor, Paul's versatility and adaptability will be perfect for your venue. Generally, this type of show lasts over an hour and includes all aspects of the mind's potential, including telepathy, clairvoyance and precognition. The show is highlighted with humour and plenty of audience participation. Although Paul's show is funny, it is "squeaky clean" and suitable for any audience. Paul's versatility also extends to the length of his show. While in most cases an hour long performance is ideal, Paul can increase or decrease the amount of time necessary for your specific needs. See for yourself why his show is the best of its kind!
