Bio

Watching Ron MacLean has been a Canadian tradition for over twenty-five years. Known for his quick wit and encyclopedic hockey knowledge, MacLean reaches millions of homes across the country on Hockey Night in Canada and Hometown Hockey. He has interviewed the greatest players, coaches, and personalities in the sport, and is a master of seeking the best in substance and entertainment from his guests. As a speaker or emcee, Ron's thoughtful insights, thrilling stories, and engaging style will entertain audiences from coast to coast. [\[morelink\]](#)

Topics

An Evening with Ron MacLean: Hockey & Humour

As an entertaining keynote or luncheon/dinner speaker Ron can inform you about both the background and the scuttlebutt of any player in the NHL. Highlights will include insights from the world of sports, including humorous anecdotes of Ron's experiences of working on Hockey Night in Canada. Ron also discusses his 'behind the scenes' accounts of his involvement in CBC coverage of the Olympics and other international sporting events.
