Bio

Nav Bhatia is best known as the Official Toronto Raptors Superfan. He has not missed a home game since the inception of the team in 1995. He can be seen at the Air Canada Centre and quite a few road games sitting in his now famous courtside seat next to the basket. In 2015 Nav was also appointed to the role of Raptor`s Community Ambassador and asked to report to the Global Ambassador, Drake, as they look to spread the love of Basketball and the Toronto Raptors. ## Topics

VIRTUAL / LIVE:

Shifting Perceptions

With his staple enthusiasm and boundless energy, Nav shared his personal journey immigrating to Canada and tirelessly working to find his fit in this country. After much struggle, he built one of the most successful businesses in the Canadian automotive industry and leveraged a love of basketball to change how people view one another. His story has been featured around the world and inspired millions.

The Power of Diversity

Speaker Nav Bhatia shares his story of immigrating to Canada, rising to the top of the North American automobile industry, and using professional basketball to change perceptions and encourage integration.

Key Takeaways:

- Improving your culture by better-integrating newcomers.
- A compass for building a successful business through a positive attitude & hard work.
- How to use shared passions to rise above discrimination & excel both as individuals and as an organization.

From Sikh to Superfan: Embracing Diversity

Organizations now see that by building out a diverse and inclusive workplace, they are gaining benefits that go far beyond the optics. But how does a diverse and inclusive workplace look in a practical sense? How can organizations better meet the unique needs of these individuals?

In this presentation, Nav shares his firsthand account of being a newcomer to Canada trying to integrate & excel with a new employer, a new culture, and a new society. This presentation will show audiences how to accommodate newcomers into your team & help equip them with the tools and support needed to excel.
