Indoor Challenge 1½ to 2 hours

At 8850m Everest is the tallest mountain on earth and one of the most sought after mountaineering goals. Your team will have a chance to embark on a simulated ascent of this extraordinary mountain. Participants will work together to form as a team, to create a vision of success and to make critical decisions that will lead them to the top. During Conquering Everest you will follow Summit President Scott Kress' 2008 climb of Everest when he became the 51st Canadian to stand on the summit. True stories, photos and video from the expedition will bring this program to life. The ultimate goal of this program is to demonstrate the power of team when embarking on a complex and challenging task. The learning focus of this program is: teamwork, collaboration, teamwork decision-making, communication, and leadership.

Indoor Challenge 2 to 3 hours

Kids in kindergarten almost all enthusiastically claim to be artists. By the time they finish grade 6 they rarely do and only reluctantly. Where does that creative spark go? In truth, it is still there it just needs to be given a workout once in a while. The ability to sync our right brain – the creative side – with our left brain – the logical side, is a hot commodity in today's conceptual age. Learn how your team can incorporate underused elements of design, storytelling and play to find out how creativity could be your next big competitive edge.

Large Group, Little Time?

Infuse your event with positive energy by integrating a unique Summit Team Building experience into your agenda. Making personal connections is a sure way to foster effective relationships, engage participants and make your conference an unforgettable experience! While most of our programs can be delivered to groups of any size, these programs are designed to be cost-effective for groups larger than 100.

NOTE: Costs for ALL of the above programs are dependent on location; the total number of participants; and the length of the desired program. Contact us for more information.
