Bio

Wendel Clark was one of the most beloved players to ever wear the Toronto Maple Leafs jersey. The former team captain, his rambunctious playing style, and exceptional talent on the ice endeared him to fans. Now an ambassador for the team and a spokesperson for a number of corporations, Clark's star power continues to shine.

Clark retired from the NHL in 2000. His last season brought his career full circle from its beginnings in 1985 with the Leafs. Overall in his career, Clark recorded 330 goals, 234 assists, 564 points, and 1,690 penalty minutes. He was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team and was second in voting for the Calder Trophy. He was selected to the NHL All-Star Game in 1986 and 1999.

Wendel is an active entrepreneur with five Wendel Clark Classic Grill restaurants in Ontario and Saskatchewan plus partners in a Meineke Car Care Centre in the GTA. He lives in Toronto with his wife and spends his summers at their home in Muskoka.
