Strolling Magic (Close-Up Sleight-of-hand Magic)

Performed "in the hands" while strolling from group to group or from table to table. It's ideal during cocktail hour, after dinner & Hospitality suites, or for when there's no time for everyone to watch a stage show. It's also a great ice breaker at corporate events. The magic happens right in the spectator's own hands or right under their noses leaving everyone with a personal magical experience.

Stage Magic

Performed on a grander scale to a seated audience using bigger props. It's unbelievable magic mixed with lots of audience participation and situation comedy. This sophisticated show is perfect for a corporate audience. A fun, clean show. In addition, Wij also offers an excellent, interactive stage show geared towards kids for Family corporate and social events.

Trade Shows

The problem you face at trade shows is finding someone who can attract enough attention to stop Trade Show attendees long enough for them to hear your company's sales message and product benefits. Wij makes it easy for you. With many years of performing in the corporate world, Wij makes frequent appearances at company trade shows, sales meetings, hospitality suites and corporate events. He uses magic to communicate your business information to your potential prospects.

Magic lends itself well to this, being a top attention getter, ice breaker and motivator of people's buying needs. As your trade show magician, Wij builds traffic, attracts potential buyers and promotes your company in a way that makes the experience memorable.

With Wij the Magician's unique marketing skills you will:

- Stop Trade Show Attendees dead in their tracks. Remember, you have to Stop them before you can sell them;
- Increase Traffic at your Trade Show Booth or Hospitality Suite;
- Entertainingly implant your product benefits and company sales message into the minds of potential buyers;
- Gain up to 65% more contacts and leads for follow up sales.

At the end of each magical presentation, the audience is in a receptive frame of mind, everyone has enjoyed hearing your company message presented entertainingly and the ice has been broken. Your sales personnel can then target qualified buyers and lead them through the sales process.

You will increase your profits while leaving a lasting impression on your clients whether it's at your next trade show, sales meeting or hospitality suite.
