

The Magic of Collaboration

Team Building Workshop

presented by Anthony Lindan

Smaller Group Format: 15 - 100 people

(adaptable up to 300 attendees)

Overview:

Anthony Lindan has combined his unique experience as a corporate trainer and entertainer to create a fun and engaging team building activity – The Magic of Collaboration – that delivers valuable learning outcomes.

Your team creates and performs a Las Vegas Style variety show. Each act is scored by a panel of celebrity judges and the highest score wins the grand prize. Although not a million dollar contract or the prestigious Mirror Ball trophy, the winners do get bragging rights in the office!

It's friendly competition where your team members are the STARS of the show! Everyone is a winner as participants experience the direct benefits of collaborating to achieve results!

How It Works:

- Your group is divided into small teams and each team acts an award winning Hollywood production team.
- Each team works together to create and perform one act in a Las Vegas style variety show. (Don't worry! Each team is given an easy to learn and even easier to perform magic trick. After about 15 minutes you'll be ready to headline your own show on the Vegas strip.)
- It's show time! Each team takes the stage and performs their act.
- It's all about achieving results so after the thunderous applause a panel of celebrity judges (for example, Lady Gaga, David Hasslehoff and Simon Cowell played by three of your people) score each performance. The team with the highest score wins the grand prize!

Logistics:

The Magic of Collaboration team building activity is a complete turnkey program and Anthony Lindan provides all required learning materials and props.

It requires a simple room set up. He's delivered the program in board rooms, hotel meeting rooms, client function rooms and even outdoors! NO fancy lighting, decor or stage is required.

About the judging... it's a FUN competition that emphasizes the importance of working together to achieve results. Three of your people play the part of celebrity judges. The judge's responses are equally as anticipated and entertaining as the performances! Don't worry, we provide the costumes and character profile briefing sheets for each judge. The client determines how many prizes are to be awarded and supplies the prizes.

The Serious Stuff

The variety show concept is an interactive, non-threatening and non-physically challenging medium. Everyone can participate and the activity draws on a diversity of skills and thrives on cross pollination and personal buy in.

Teams can straddle departments, age, gender, job titles, seniority, skill sets and learning styles. Crossing silos allows your employees to truly appreciate and experience the diverse perspectives that contribute to your organization's ultimate success.

Each team is assigned a simple and easy to perform magic trick and given a progression of defined tasks that culminates in a performance on stage. Not everyone has to go on stage. Three quarters of the work is behind the scenes.

Participants negotiate within the teams for roles that are in line with their natural strengths and talents. Working from a strong foundation promotes personal buy in of the entire collaborative process and strengthens the link between attitude, working together and achieving results.

Teams have fun working hard and smart taking calculated risks in a truly collaborative experience. Empowered players build strong teams that create amazing results.

The creative finger prints of each team player are integral ingredients in defining the ultimate success of the stage performance.

Minimum number of participants is 15 and the maximum number is 300. Including Anthony Lindan's opening magic demonstrations; the total run time is generally 2 - 2½ hours. Anthony Lindan provides all necessary magic props as well as and learning & take-away materials.

Anthony Lindan is a master magician, performer, team builder, custom creator and lecturer of close up magic as well as a gifted and engaging stage illusionist and mentalist.
