ABOUT JENN

Jenn Harper is not just a name in the beauty industry; she's a revolution. An award-winning social entrepreneur and international speaker, Jenn is the trailblazing founder and CEO of Cheekbone Beauty Cosmetics - a brand that has gracefully painted the ideals of sustainability and inclusion onto a global canvas. From its inception in 2015, Jenn has nurtured Cheekbone Beauty into a B. Corp Certified force, now gracing the shelves of Sephora Canada and 550 JCPenney locations across the USA.

Jenn Harper stands as more than a CEO; she is a voice for entrepreneurship, exerting influence on topics that are reshaping the business landscape: social entrepreneurship, empathy, representation, inclusivity, and sustainability. Regularly sought after for her insights, Jenn weaves her narrative as both a woman and a representative of North America's Indigenous peoples, substantiating the importance of these values in today's business ecosystem.

Jenn Harper, with Cheekbone Beauty, brings forth a narrative of passion, resilience, and authenticity. Her biography is not just about the ascent of a brand; it's the story of a vision brought to life, of barriers broken, and of a future envisioned where commerce and charity coalesce seamlessly, all painted with the strokes of an eco-friendly brush.

NLOWE

I couldn't have asked for a better, down to earth, humble, honest and real speaker for this group of delegates to kick off this conference. She had attendees in tears with her story and everyone left inspired by her. She stayed with us and networked with us till after lunch ensuring that she spoke to as many people as she could. Her story is one that needs to be told. I would highly recommend Jenn Harper to any group. She is something special and will be a superstar soon enough.

JAZZ PHARMA

Inspiring! Passionate! Vibrant! All of these are just a few words to describe Jenn Harper. Jazz Pharmaceuticals hosted Jenn Harper, of Cheekbone Beauty, as a part of our International Women's Day celebration. She brings an electric energy that is contagious to all around her, and when she shared her journey and process of developing her business and brand our employees were left wanting more. THANK YOU, Jenn and Cheekbone, for connecting all of us to your mission and vision.

Lauren Griffey, Alliance Management
Jazz Pharma

WHITBY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Thank you to Jenn for participating as our Keynote speaker, at our 12th annual Whitby Chamber of Commerce Connect Women conference. She delivered an exceptional presentation! The crowd of over 250 were awestruck; and we couldn't have been happier as organizers. The feedback was so positive that two major organizations in the Region have requested she speak at their events! We feel blessed to have her grace our stage and share her story.

Natalie Prychitko
CEO of Whitby Chamber of Commerce

SOCAP

Your insights and presence brought an energy and depth that truly resonated with our attendees and made this year's SOCAP a success. The feedback we've received underscores the impact of your intervention and the insights you shared. Your presence didn't just inform—it inspired. The way you engaged with the audience, shared your expertise, and sparked those "aha" moments was a gift to everyone present. We're especially grateful for your generosity in sharing your time and wisdom. Your contributions set a high bar and help us create a space where impactful ideas can thrive.

Michelle Arevato-Carpenter
Executive Director of Strategy and Content, SOCAP Global

TIMMINS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

On International Women's Day our members attended a keynote by Jennifer. Her authenticity shone through as she shared practical steps we can take to support each other and create change in the world. Her personal journey as a female entrepreneur was challenging, but her resilience and determination were truly inspiring. The audience was moved to both laughter and tears as she shared her experiences. Above all, Jennifer emphasized the importance of representation and how seeing someone like yourself in positions of leadership can be a powerful force for change.

Carmen Swartz
Manager of Business Services, Timmins Chamber of Commerce.
