Art Gallery of Ontario (AGO)

It's doors may have first opened over 100 years ago, but thanks to a remarkable transformation at the hands of renowned architect Frank Gehry, the Art Gallery of Ontario has become Canada's newest and most talked about cultural destination.

And with 4000 artworks displayed within its 110 galleries, this international landmark is now also home to Conundrum's newest and most artful team building adventure.

Your teambuilding training at the AGO will lead you on an artistic journey that spans classical and contemporary, comical and critical, straightforward and strange. You'll discover that there's more to art than meets the eye as you investigate a crime scene from 19th century Quebec, help an artist finish his lunch, and determine which Canadian icon deserves a place in a futuristic world composed of only one city.

We've designed our Art Gallery of Ontario team building event with unique challenges and puzzles that have broad appeal – they will capture the interest of your most passionate art aficionado, most ardent art critic, and everyone in between.

Most importantly, your staff will get the opportunity to develop an appreciation not only for the AGO's impressive works, but also the resourcefulness and brainpower of their office co-workers.

If you would like to make your Conundrum Art Gallery of Ontario team building event part of a larger corporate offsite, the Gallery offers a variety of conference room and catering options that can meet your needs.
