Calgary

A vibrant city of quadrants is now an intriguing city of conundrums.

Our special brand of puzzle-based team building floods Calgary's downtown core with unique, challenging, and entertaining conundrums. Our adventures highlight many of the city's most famous features, but also expose some of its hidden gems. Most importantly, as your staff navigates through their adventure route, not only will they get to know their city better, but also get a better understanding of each other's talents and strengths.

What will your team's Calgary adventure entail? Teams will tackle a variety of puzzles and challenges that test a broad range of team skill sets including ingenuity, decision making, and communication abilities. Although they won't be asked to wrestle a steer, or steer a bobsled, teams may need to help a cowboy find his missing boot, discover some new uses for oil, or invent a futuristic sport that should be part of Calgary's next winter Olympic Games.

Your team's Conundrum event will add up to a fun shared experience that will be remembered long after the last conundrum solution has been revealed!
