At Conundrum, we focus on creating and delivering experiential team building activities that strike just the right balance between fun and learning.

Our adventures easily stand alone as entertaining team events that get people working together. But in truth they are much more. Each is designed from the start to shine a spotlight on team behaviour and to impart valuable lessons on effective and efficient teamwork.

ABOUT US

Who: Since 2002, we have provided high quality experiential team building and entertainment adventures to the corporate market.

What: In the spirit of friendly competition, our adventures challenge teams to use their collective problem solving, organizational and communication powers to achieve success. Key elements of our adventures: Engaging, Inclusive, Challenging, High Quality.

Where: Our adventures are currently offered in interesting neighbourhoods and venues found in Toronto, Oakville, Hamilton and London. However, we are also able to customize some of our adventures to a city or venue of your choice.

ADVENTURES

Conundrum Metro: Our signature adventure takes place outdoors in exciting urban neighborhoods, renowned for their interesting sites & stories. Teams navigate their way throughout the chosen urban landscape in an attempt to solve a variety of original, entertaining, and challenging conundrums. Each route design is specifically tailored to your starting and ending locations, making every Conundrum Metro adventure a unique experience.

Conundrum Expo: We bring our original adventure indoors into the cultured corridors of Toronto's finest venues. Teams not only get to solve conundrums in a perfect climate, but also get to explore these venues and their enlightening exhibits in a unique and entertaining way.

Media Circus: In this dynamic adventure, teams are thrust into the fast-paced media world, and receive a set of diverse story assignments that will test their problem-solving abilities, time management capabilities, organizational skills, and creative powers. Teams compete for coveted air time on Media Circus, the network's flagship program, by producing and filming informative, compelling, and entertaining broadcast segments.

The Seventh Knight: Harken back to the Middle Ages for our newest adventure, set in the majestic confines of Medieval Times Castle. Teams must transform themselves quickly into a band of noble quest solvers as they attempt to piece together their knight's crest. The most worthy team will achieve the ultimate honour: selecting a member to serve with the other six Knights of the Realm.

PROGRAMS

 After selecting the adventure theme and setting that best appeals to your group, you can then pair it with the program that best matches the learning objectives for your event.

Program	Focus	Time Frame
Classic	Fun and exciting team challenge.	2 1/4 - 3 1/2 hours
Classic Plus	Fun and exciting team challenge with an explicit debrief on team dynamics.	3 – 4 hours
True Colours	Individual and team learning utilizing the True Colours Temperament assessment tool and the Conundrum Adventure as an experiential learning opportunity.	4 ½ - 5 hours

- Effective decision making

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING...

"We found the adventure to be a great problem solving exercise. People on the team thoroughly enjoyed the wide variety of puzzles included and found the program to be fun, interactive, fast-paced and different from other team building events we have run in the past."

Laurie Saelhof, National Category Manager

"Our team thought the Conundrum Adventure event was great - it was original, challenging, creative and fun! The fast pace of the program and the intelligent clues really held people's attention for the duration of the event. As well, people loved the fact that it took place at the ROM, which is a terrific venue. Thanks for delivering a memorable team event."

Sally Basmajian, VP Sales & Marketing

"We struggled to find a team event that would appeal to everyone on our very diverse team. Running a Conundrum Adventure was a great solution! The wide variety of puzzles included in the adventure ensured that there was something for everyone."

Keith Rodd, Director, IT Strategy Group

"Our team thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to get outside, explore Toronto, and work together to solve the challenging puzzles you put together for us. Our Conundrum Adventure posed many of the same challenges that we face in our work environment - we needed to plan, strategize, prioritize, and definitely needed to use some creative thinking in order to be successful! Thanks for running such a fun and well-organized event."
