LONDON, Ont.

With tree-lined streets and an abundance of parkland, The Forest City certainly lives up to its name. But as the home of the John Labatt Center, The Grand Theatre, the University of Western Ontario, The Canadian Medical Hall of Fame, and numerous other historic & cultural sites and buildings, London offers its residents & guests a lot more than nature walks.

Our team building game fully captures the spirit and dynamic nature of the city's downtown core; you'll experience not only the tranquillity of Victoria Park, but also the bustle of Covent Garden Market, the flair of Richmond Row, and the eclecticism of Dundas Street. You'll get to know these popular districts better than anyone as you search their most interesting offerings for answers to intriguing puzzles and entertaining challenges. During your adventure you may have to scan a crowded theatre audience for some out-of-place characters, offer assistance to a tourist looking for a different city of London, or navigate your way through a sparse, but colourful forest.

Starting and finishing points for your downtown London team building adventure are flexible, as each adventure is designed around your needs to ensure a convenient and easy planning experience.
