OAKVILLE

Rich in historical and cultural features, the Town of Oakville provides an ideal setting to put team exercises in motion with a Conundrum Adventure. Combining the best of all worlds, our Oakville route captures the energy of a bustling shopping district, the serenity of a quiet residential neighbourhood, and the scenery of a breezy lakeside park.

As your adventure unfolds, you'll get the opportunity to explore the best features of this 150 year old town. Your team exercises may require you to stroll amongst historic residences to help a postal worker deliver some long lost mail, decode details of an important treaty using the signatures of ten native Mississauga Indian band chiefs, or help a local singer calm her nerves before opening night at the Center for Performing Arts. All the while, you'll be exploring Oakville from a new perspective during your team-building games, practicing skills that will spark effective team-building ideas that lead to greater team cohesion and effectiveness.

As with all Conundrum routes, our Oakville adventure offers customized starting and finishing points to make your experience as convenient as possible.
